ALASKA TROPHY ADVENTURES LODGE

Opening Week 2022

Join me for a hosted week of fishing in 2022 at Alaska Trophy Adventures Lodge with John Gierach as our distinguished guest.

I'm hosting the opening week of the Alaskan fishing season at Alaska Trophy Adventures Lodge, with the option of a four-day extension.

The first full week of lodge operation is Sunday to Sunday, June 12 to 19, but the opening day of the Alaska fishing season is June 8. If you'd like to join us, you have the option of arriving early, on June 7, and fishing June 8-9-10-11... and then the following week, June 12 to 19. Eleven full days of fishing!

If it's difficult getting away for the extra four days, and you'd like to join us for just the first full week (June 12 to 19), the price is $6500, which includes taxes and air charters to and from the lodge.

The cost of the extended week is just $7,550, and also includes taxes and air charters to and from the lodge. Four extra days of fishing for just $1050.00.

Arrive in Anchorage and spend the night.

Bob will stay at the The Lakefront Anchorage - Millenium. More hotel suggestions can be found on the ATA website.

On arrival in King Salmon, an ATA rep will meet you and take you to the air charter (DHC Beaver on wheels). Due to limited space you will fly to the lodge in a couple of groups.

When you arrive at the lodge the staff will show you to your cabin. You will meet the staff and guides and enjoy a pleasant evening and dinner.

Wednesday, June 8 or Monday June 13 - Saturday, June 18

We will fish and enjoy the Alaskan experience. Hearty breakfasts at the lodge, lunches on the river, return to the lodge in the evening for dinner and tall tales from the day.

Sunday, June 19

Shuttle to King Salmon for return flight to Anchorage. King Salmon to Anchorage flight details will be provided when the schedules have been set.

Return home on an evening flight or enjoy Anchorage for a few days.

The Anchorage airport is easy to navigate, and there shouldn't be a problem making a connection if you have a late evening flight home on Sunday, June 19.
